

SHELTER in PLACE POLICIES & CONSTRUCTION:

GUIDANCE for CONSTRUCTION DOCUMENT RELEASED by CITY OF AUSTIN

Today, both Austin Mayor Adler and Travis County Judge Eckhardt released their respective Stay Home - Work Safe orders in response to concerns about COVID-19. The City of Austin order is here and the one for Travis County is here.

Despite numerous conclusions by industry experts that those orders both deem all construction as "critical infrastructure" and therefore allowed to continue, the City has now issued an official guidance document that restricts commercial and residential construction activities except in very limited situations.

Updated information will follow soon.
