

BOOTH REGULATIONS (ALL BOOTH TYPES)

TxA26 Annual Conference and Design Expo
October 15–17, 2026 • San Antonio

TxA adheres to guidelines set by the International Association of Exhibitions and Events.

Booth Types and Regulations

IN-LINE BOOTHS

- Typically 10 ft × 10 ft (3.05 m × 3.05 m). Larger multiples (10 × 20, 10 × 30, etc.) follow same rules
- Maximum display height: 8 ft (2.44 m) in the rear half of the booth
- Front half of booth (within 5 ft of aisle) limited to 4 ft (1.22 m)
- When three or more booths are combined, the 4 ft height restriction applies only to portions within 10 ft of neighboring booths

CORNER BOOTHS

- In-line Booth at the end of an aisle with exposure on two sides
- Follows same height and line-of-sight restrictions as In-line Booths

END-CAP BOOTHS

- Usually 10 ft deep × 20 ft wide
- Back wall may be 8 ft high across 10 ft center width
- Within 5 ft of side aisles, maximum display height is 4 ft

PENINSULA BOOTHS

- Exposed on three sides, usually 20×20 ft or larger
- If backing to In-line Booths, back wall must be 4 ft high within 5 ft of aisles
- Center back wall may reach 16–20 ft including signage
- Double-sided signs must be set back 10 ft from adjacent booths

SPLIT-ISLAND BOOTHS

- Two Peninsula Booths back-to-back
- May use entire cubic content up to 16–20 ft
- No sightline restrictions on shared back wall
- Hanging signs must be set back 10 ft from adjacent booths

ISLAND BOOTHS

- Exposed on all four sides; usually 20×20 ft or larger (minimum 400 sq ft)
- Full cubic content may be used up to 16–20 ft, including signage

Hanging Signs and Banners

Hanging signs are permitted only in Island, Peninsula, and Split-Island Booths. They are not allowed over In-line, Corner, or End-Cap Booths without permission of show manager.

- Maximum height for hanging signs (top of sign to floor): 20 ft, unless venue restrictions differ.
- Signs must be set back at least 10 ft from neighboring booths.
- Double-sided signs must be positioned to face inward, avoiding obstruction to neighboring exhibitors.

Demonstration Areas

Demonstrations are not permitted at this time.
